In my Life

There are places I'll remember, all my life though some have changed.

*Some forever, not for better,
some have gone and some remain.
All these places have their moments,
with lovers and friends I still can recall.*

*Some are dead and some are living,
in my life I've loved them all.*

*But of all these friends and lovers,
there is no one compares with you,
and these memories lose their meaning,
when I think of love as something new.
Though I know I'll never lose affection,
for people and things that went before.
I know I'll often stop and think about them,
in my life I love you more.*

-Lennon/ McCartney

DEDICATION

Dr. Jeffrey Ryan

We began this journey together as new members of Reading Memorial High School. Over the past four years, Mr. Ryan's charisma, support and enthusiasm have inspired and encouraged us all. He has had an impact on every senior, whether it be in the classroom as a captivating teacher or as a committed and tireless class advisor. We respect and admire his intelligence, passion and dedication to the senior class. We sincerely and affectionately thank Mr. Ryan for his friendship and devotion to the Class of 2001.

ADMINISTRATION

Dear Class of 2001,

It is with a great deal of pride and pleasure that I have served as Superintendent to such an exceptional group of young people. The Class of 2001 had many outstanding accomplishments in academics, the arts and athletics during your 13 years in the Reading Public Schools. Your accomplishments have brought recognition not only to Reading Memorial High School, but also to the entire Reading Community.

The quality of the senior class of 2001 is extraordinary. As you begin on a new road, I hope you will take with you fond memories of Reading Memorial High School, of your teachers and of the friends that you have made here.

On behalf of the Reading School Committee, the administration and the staff of the Reading Public Schools, I congratulate you on completing your education here in Reading and wish you happiness and continued success in all your future endeavors.

Sincerely yours,

Harry K. Harutunian, Ph.D.
Superintendent of Schools

Mr. Frank Orlando Principal

You have met every academic challenge placed before you. You have displayed a social conscience that demonstrated your interest in the health of our school. Finally, you have represented our school in a way that is both appreciated and admired by the entire staff and faculty. Congratulations and good luck to the class of 2001.

Mr. Orlando

Ms. Cheryl O'Brien Assistant Principal

Ms. O'Brien has been our assistant principal for three out of our four years in the school, taking over for Mr. Finigan when he left after our junior year. It was her job to make sure we knew the rules and regulations at RMHS and to keep us on the right track, should we have accidentally strayed. Ms. O'Brien continually reaches out a helping hand whether it be school related or personal. She is always willing to help and does it with a smile. Her endless energy and enthusiasm has made our high school career a memorable experience.

Mr. Michael Scarpitto Assistant Principal

Mr. Scarpitto's first year at the high school was our senior year. Although he never was our assistant principal he has played an integral role in our senior year. Through his establishment of the weekly High Five program many seniors have been honored for their accomplishments. He has become a visible addition to the RMHS community throughout the halls and at

Mr. Philip Vaccaro Athletic and Activities Director

Some of us may know Mr. Vaccaro as Mr. V., Phil, or even the Godfather. Whatever name we call him, we all know he will always be there for Reading athletics. He has shown the athletes of Reading High his great support and his consideration. He has helped us achieve our goals and excel. We are extremely grateful for the distinctive element of good sportsmanship that he has instilled in us. Thank you for everything Mr. V.!

SENIOR CLASS ADVISORS

THANK YOU!

Since the fall of 1997, Mr. Ryan and Mrs. Yuhas have dedicated endless time and effort to the Class of 2001.

Mr. Ryan and Mrs. Yuhas have played an integral part in helping to organize and support our many fund raising activities, as well as social and community service events. They have provided leadership and direction as we made our way through a very busy, productive and fast four years at Reading High.

Mr. Ryan
and
Mrs. Yuhas

It was only two years for me. I used to live in Pennsylvania. But I moved back. Thanks to the X-country team, it was not so hard. Becky, Psycho, Mike S and Kathleen, you have been good friends. Andrea T, you are very special to me. I will remember Granby, MA. And plenty of other stuff I can't seem to be able to remember. There is so much in the world that needs to be changed. Is there anyone that wants to help? I believe there is.

Pat, Patrick, Hen, Hennessy. High school should be remembered as a good time or at least a transition period in life. I would like to thank the teachers for their hard work, even though they are underpaid. It is the track program that really defines Reading. Mr. Croft and Mr. Rit were the best coaches I have ever had and will always be well respected. I will never be a part of any other team with such a strong and committed program. I love track and I greatly appreciate the time and effort put in by Mr. Croft and Mr. Rit.

The Road goes ever on and on Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
And I must follow, if I can,
Pursuing it with weary feet,
Until it joins some larger way,
Where many paths and errands meet.
And whither then? I cannot say.

SEEM

Reading participates in the SEEM collaborative, a local program that provides a wide variety of special education programs. The RMHS student's curriculum parallels their high school peers focusing on academics with inclusion in Science, History, Decisions and Physical Education. The students are also a part of after school sports and enjoy it very much.

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

K. Sheedy, K. Andrews-Rice, C. Bianchetto, J. Macari, A. Clough, Mr. Ryan (Class Advisor), K. Russo, C. Thurnauer, T. Cagnina, E. Patterson, J. Pasquale, K. Marfione, J. McAleer

The officers of the Senior Class are some of the busiest people in our building. They meet at least twice a week in order to plan all of the school's major social events. The officers organize and run the school dances and they put on the Thanksgiving Breakfast. The many end-of-the-year events are arranged by the officers: the Senior Prom, as well as the Banquet and All-Night Party.

They also participate in a number of charitable endeavors such as bell-ringing for the Salvation Army and marching in the Walk for Hunger.

CLASS COMMITTEE

Row 1: K. Sheedy, K. Andrews-Rice, S. Sheehy, A. Clough, C. Bianchetto, E. Burke, M.C. Kwiatek, M. Rothwell, S. Indiciani, N. Santosuoso, H. Lowe, C. Meade Row 2: R. Fitzgerald, A. Horn, M. Hegarty, N. Casalaro, M. Hanifan, T. Biller, M. Smith, E. Weinreb, B. Chase, L. Gerety, E. Patterson

JUNIOR CLASS OFFICERS

SOPHOMORE CLASS OFFICERS

The Student Council is a group of elected students who organize school and community events. The 2000-2001 Student Council worked especially hard to reform and put on this year's Spirit Week and Pep Rally events. In addition the Student Council held bake sales, sponsored a school dance and hosted the Senior Citizens prom in May. The Student Council also sponsored scholarships to college bound students.

STUDENT ADVISORY COUNCIL

The Student Advisory Council acts as representatives to the Northeast Regional Student Advisory Council. We meet once a month with representatives from other high schools in our region. It is a very beneficial organization, and we hope it continues for years to come.

Matt Cohen and Rory Fitzgerald

YOUTH IN GOVERNMENT

The Youth In Government program helps students develop a greater appreciation or an understanding of the democratic process. Students research, develop and debate bills on topics and issues important to them and the community. Students then participate in a model legislative conference at the State House.

MODEL UN

Model UN students research the major problems facing today's world and develop resolutions to a mock general assembly of the United Nations. Each team represents a member nation. Students engage in debate and negotiation during a two-day conference.

Row 1: D. Suchy, J. McAleer, E. Suchy, K. Sims, M.C. Kwiatec, R. Ferrari, M. Marfione, H. Cohen Row 2: G. Keohan, N. Casalaro, K. Morely, J. Davis, M. Gottwald, J.P. Cormio, M. Foley, R. Fitzgerald Row 3: M. Wetzel, M. DiNatale, M. Cohen, N. Maksou NOT PICTURED: B. Rubin

PEER LEADERS

Row 1: A. Clough, M. Hanifan Row 2: K. Sheedy, K. Russo, K. Andrews-Rice, J. Macari, K. Sims, M.C. Kwiatec, T. Biller, S. Bejtlich, H. Lowe, C. Bianchetto, J. Downing, J. Spordone Row 3: M. Mulvanity, C. Carpenter, K. McCulley, A. Maillett, B. Shor, E. Wei, M. Ottariano, K. Dunn, M. Hollis Row 4: J. Martin, S. Whittaker, D. Czulada, P. Lynch, M. Logsdon, I. Walcott

Peer Leaders are a group of students selected to raise awareness throughout the school, concerning topics such as health, well-being, and stress management. We manage the freshman orientation and participate in community service activities.

NATIONAL HONORS SOCIETY

The National Honors Society consists of students who have maintained a G.P.A. of 3.7 or better, demonstrated excellence in leadership, shown a commitment to community service, and displayed integrity in scholarship. Thank you to Ms. Turnbull and Mr. Ballantyne for their continued support. We are proud to be a part of Reading Memorial High School and the Reading community.

NEW ENGLAND MATH LEAGUE

Row 1: J. McAleer, R. Taylor, S. Bejtlich, A. Clough, H. Lowe, T. Biller, P. Lynch

Students who participate in the New England Math League (NEML), take six competitive math exams throughout the course of the year. High scores from these tests are recognized at the end of the school year.

NATIONAL HISTORY DAY

National History Day is an academic program that encourages students to explore historical themes through a variety of mediums: papers, performances, exhibits and documentaries. This year's theme was "Frontiers in History: People, Places, Ideas." NHD is a many-tiered competition, beginning within the school, and expanding into the district and state and culminating in the National Contest held in Washington D.C. This year there were 60 entries at the local level representing well over 100 enthusiastic students.

Kieth, S. Indiciani, J. Walsh, N. Casalaro, T. Petruziello, N. Santosuosso, E. Charleton, T. Kelly, G. Barchard

Guided by the able leadership of co-editors Tim Biller and Jill Macari, the 2001 Pioneer yearbook staff labored through long hours spent cropping photos, planning layouts, and battling sporadic bouts with insanity to eventually produce this masterful encapsulation of the glory days of high school. A concerted, dedicated effort was put forth to provide the class of '01 with an exemplary memento of their time spent at RMHS that will be treasured for years to come and call to mind nostalgic remembrances of days long since past.

MCK FAN CLUB

The MCK Fan Club is an elite group of people all drawn together to support everything that is MCK. Members of the MCK Fan Club will stop at nothing to satisfy their fearless leader, Mary Christine Kwiatek. President Matt Boyd, Vice President Mike Burns, Treasurer John Ebrecht, and Secretary Jake MacAleer have organized an array of functions to help benefit MCK. Profits from the MCK Fan Club have gone to help many organizations, such as Caruso's of Melrose. The MCK Fan Club has been a driving force in the hearts of all its members.

ORIGINAL NAME CLUB

The Original Names Club is a new club dedicated to raising awareness of innovative and unique names in our senior class. Led by its charming co-presidents, Hilary "one-L" Lowe and Stef "with-an-F" Indiciani, we have enjoyed great success this year.

TURKEY CLUB

The Turkey Club is open to everyone at RMHS- teachers and students. The purpose of the club is... to celebrate Turkeys. Well, not only turkeys, but roosters and chickens as well. For those of you who do not know, there are wild turkeys living in Reading. This club was founded to help protect and support these turkeys. And we support roosters... because... well, Mr. K. does the best rooster impression you will ever see.

FOOTBALL CHEERLEADING

Due to many different circumstances, cheerleading this season was especially difficult for us. However, the season was a success in that we prepared three different routines for two pep rallies and an exhibition that was held in Stoneham. Much work was put into the preparation of these events, and in working together the team definitely grew much closer together than we were at the start of the season.

Captain: Sarah Sheehy

Row 1: J. Molton, K. Lynch, C. Baione, E. Walshaw, C. Fiorello Row 2: S. Sheehy (capt)

Row 3: M. Jordon, D. Melanson, S. Hawes, E. Walsh, L. Dodge, A. Sabia

Missing: K. Dodge

SOCCKER CHEERLEADING

Soccer cheering was great this season. We had a lot of fun cheering for this years soccer players. The squads captains were, Kelly Jordon and Jenna Davis. We did very well with the exhibition and the Pep Rally was fun. We could not have done it without the help of our coach Saah McKay. Good luck to the class of 2001.

MARCHING BAND

This year the RMHS marching band performed Dvorak's "New World Symphony" at the football game half time shows. The band also performed at numerous competitions. All of the band members would like to extend a sincere thank you to all of the band parents who helped to make this marching season a successful one. All of the seniors would like to extend a special thank you and a fond farewell to our director, Mr. Bunten, and our assistant director, Mr. Mulligan. Our experience with the RMHS band will not soon be forgotten.

COLORGUARD

The RMHS Colorguard had a great season this year under the direction of senior tri-captains, Micaela Ahl, Samantha Farrell, and Hilary Lowe. With the direction of a new coach, the colorguard started out the season by performing in the Millennium Parade in Washington, D.C. this past summer. With the many underclassmen that we'll leave behind, we only hope that they will continue to work hard and perform well.

BOYS' INDOOR TRACK

The Boys indoor track team had a successful season. After finishing with and 8-1 record, the year was topped off with a Class B State Relay victory. The state championship was the highlight of the season as it showed the depth of the team and their ability to compete with the best teams in the state. Good luck to next years team!

WRESTLING

The Reading High Wrestling team had another solid year, finishing with a 12-10-1 record. Late season wins against Wilmington and Dracut ensured a winning season. Another highlight for the team was placing among the top ten teams in the state tournament. The team was lead by senior tri-captains Keith Marfione, John Sullivan and Pat Connelly. The outlook for the future looks strong as the team continues to grow in numbers.

2000 - 2001 RMHS DRAMA CLUB

The RMHS Drama Club began the year on a "high note" with their witty and colorful production of the hit musical "Brigadoon." This fairy tale filled with Scottish magic was a huge success of which the drama club was very proud. In the winter season, the RMHS Drama Club enters the state drama festival competition where over 150 schools throughout the state compete at three different levels of competition. This year the Drama Club is writing their own script based on the presence of witchcraft in the town of Reading. In the spring the Drama Club will end the year with a community orientated musical production. In the midst of constant performances and rehearsals, Drama Club members had fun at various club-sponsored activities throughout the year.

Graduating Words of Wisdom

We started as total strangers and ended as lifetime friends, we shared a season of our lives, but every season has to end. *

You have to take it as it happens, but you should try to make it happen the way you want to take it.

* Eat when you're hungry. Drink when you're thirsty. Sleep when you're tired.

* Do what you can, with what you have, where you are.

* What you do speaks so loud that I cannot hear what you say.

* Our greatest glory consists not in never falling, but in rising every time we fall.

* Outgrowing things we love is never a pleasant process.

* The heart has reasons that reason does not understand.

* Some days you're the bug, some days you're the windshield.

* We're all pretty bizarre, some of us are just better at hiding it.

\ Do not go gentle into that good night, rage, rage, against the dying of the light.*

* Hate is baggage. Life's too short to be pissed off all the time.

\ To the world you may be one person, but to one person you may be the world.*

* For long you live and high you fly, the smiles you give and the tears you cry. For all you touch and all you see is all your life will ever be.

* The fellow who does things that count, doesn't usually stop to count them.

\ I always used to think that I'd look back on us crying and laugh, but I never thought I'd look back on us laughing and cry.*

* If your life is free of failures, you're not taking enough risks.

* If there are things you don't like in the world you grew up in, make your own life different.

* The view only changes for the lead dog.

\ The way to love anything is to realize that it might be lost.*

* Some birds aren't meant to be caged, their feathers are just too bright.

* We are the people our parents warned us about.

* The trick is growing up without growing old.

* Try not. Do. Or do not. There is no try.

* I never let my schooling interfere with my education.

* You just can't beat the guy who never gives up.

\ Love takes the masks off that we fear we cannot live without and know we cannot live within.*

* Live so that your friends can defend you, but never have to.

* You've got to do your own growing, no matter how tall your grandfather was.

* This above all: to thine own self be true, And it must follow, as the night the day, Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Farewell: my blessing season this in thee!
